

(Photograph by Wiqan Ang) MUNCHIES Gibbet Hill Grill's

dainty grilled cheese sandwiches are irresistible.
CRAVINGS

Comforting

If ever there were a time to seek out comfort food, this is it. Grilled cheese, anyone?

By Rachel Travers
October 26, 2008

- Email
- Print
- Single Page
- Yahoo! Buzz
- ShareThis

Text size

THE BEST: FARMHOUSE GRILLED CHEESES $7.50, Gibbet Hill Grill

The best part about chef Richmond Edes's grilled cheese sandwiches is that the presentation is so Martha. Two types of adorable bite-size sandwiches are arranged around a steaming bowl of bisquelike tomato soup. Munch on one of the four sourdough grilled triangles stuffed with Westfield Farm's Hubbardston blue or inhale Westfield's chevre, which is piped into three house-made corn crackers shaped like little boats. The soup is solid enough to stand alone, but plan on dunking. Grilled cheese is to tomato soup what peas are to carrots - they taste so much better together. Bottom line You don't have to be a kid to love these tasty bites.